

If you could ask any of the trolls some questions, what would they be? Remember to start your questions using the question words what, who, why, when, how and where. Also remember to end each question with a question mark. Record these in your exercise book.

